COMPLIANCE AGREEMENT

I, Jason Beaverho, of Whati, in the Northwest Territories (the Contracting Party) was a qualified elector in the electoral district of Monfwi during the 2011 territorial general election.

The Contracting Party admits that during the 2011 election he procured another person to cast a ballot in the election under his name, knowing that the person was not qualified to do so.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that this act constitutes a failure to comply with the Elections and Plebiscites Act (the Act). The Contracting Party acknowledges and accepts responsibility for this act, and is now aware of the offence provision at section 302(2) of the Act.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that he is aware of the severity and the seriousness of her act. The Contracting Party undertakes to comply with this provision of the Act in the future.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that he was aware of the opportunity to vote by special ballot, advance poll, and other voting opportunities.

The Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories (the CEO) acknowledges that the Contracting Party cooperated with his Office and admitted full responsibility for his conduct.

The Contracting Party consents to the publication of a notice containing the Contracting Party's name, the act or omission in question, and a summary of the compliance agreement.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that the CEO has advised him of his right to be represented by a lawyer and that he has had the opportunity to obtain legal counsel.

The Contracting Party understands that his acknowledgement of non-compliance does not constitute a guilty plea in the criminal sense and that no record of conviction is created as a result of admitting responsibility for the activity that constitutes the offence.

Signed by the Contracting Party,
in Yellowknife,
this 10 day of July, 2012.

Signed by the Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories, in the City of Yellowknife, this 10 day of July, 2012.
