COMPLIANCE AGREEMENT

I, Terri Lee Kuptana, of Tuktoyaktuk, in the Northwest Territories (the Contracting Party) was the Official Agent for Eddie T. Dillon during the 2011 election in the electoral district of Nunakput.

The Contracting Party admits that she failed to transmit to the Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories (the "CEO") a candidate financial report in the approved form within 60 days from polling day for the 2011 election.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that this act constitutes a failure to comply with section 333 of the Elections and Plebiscites Act (the Act).

The Contracting Party acknowledges and accepts responsibility for this act, and is now aware of the offence provision at section 333 of the Act.

The Contracting Party undertakes to comply with this provision of the Act in the future.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that she is aware of the severity and the seriousness of her action.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that she has been served with the Summons to a Person Charged with an Offence (the "Summons") under section 333 of the Act issued May 28, 2012, and a copy of the Summons is attached to this compliance agreement as Schedule "A".

The Contracting Party acknowledges that if she fails to comply with this agreement, including any failure to comply with the Act if she acts as an official agent for a candidate in a future election, the Chief Electoral Officer may resume the prosecution commenced by the Summons, in addition to any other options available to the CEO under the Act.

The the CEO acknowledges that the Contracting Party cooperated with his Office and admitted full responsibility for the conduct involved.

The Contracting Party consents to the publication of a notice containing the Contracting Party's name, the act or omission in question, and a summary of the compliance agreement.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that the CEO has advised her of her right to be represented by a lawyer and that she has had the opportunity to obtain legal counsel.

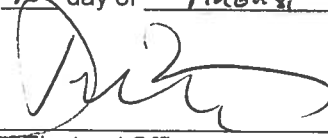

The Contracting Party understands that her acknowledgement of non-compliance does not constitute a guilty plea in the criminal sense and that no record of conviction is created as a result of admitting responsibility for the activity that constitutes the offence.

Signed by the Contracting Party, in Tuktoyaktuk NT
this 18 day of July, 2012.

Signed by the Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories, in the City of Yellowknife, this 15 day of August, 2012.
