COMPLIANCE AGREEMENT

I, Eddie T. Dillon, of Tuktoyaktuk, in the Northwest Territories (the "Contracting Party") was a candidate during the 2011 election in the electoral district of Nunakput.

The Contracting Party admits that he failed to make a declaration in the approved form of a candidate financial report no later than 60 days after polling day for the 2011 election, and acknowledges that this constitutes a failure to comply with section 256(2) of the Elections and Plebiscites Act (the Act).

The Contracting Party acknowledges that he received a demand letter from the Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories (the "CEO") on March 27th, 2012. The Contracting Party admits that he failed to pay the $250 penalty to the CEO within 30 days after receiving this demand, and acknowledges that this constitutes a failure to comply with section 257.1(1) of the Act.

The Contracting Party is now aware of the offence provisions at sections 286 and 333 of the Act.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that this is the second consecutive election that he has failed to make a declaration in the approved form of a candidate financial report no later than 60 days after polling day, with the declaration following the 2007 general election being submitted on April 1st, 2008, some four months after the deadline.

The Contracting Party acknowledges and accepts responsibility for all of the acts and omissions detailed in this compliance agreement. The Contracting Party acknowledges that he is aware of the severity and seriousness of his acts and omissions.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that he has been served with the Summons to a Person Charged with an Offence (the "Summons") under section 333 of the Act issued May 28, 2012, and a copy of the Summons is attached to this compliance agreement as Schedule "A".

The Contracting Party undertakes to comply in the future with the provisions of the Act governing election contributions and expenses, and, in particular, should he again be nominated as a candidate, to comply with the requirement for a candidate financial report to be filed on his behalf in the approved form within the prescribed period.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that if he fails to comply with this agreement, including any failure to comply with the Act if he runs as a candidate in a future election, the Chief Electoral Officer may resume the prosecution commenced by the Summons, in addition to any other options available to the CEO under the Act.

The CEO acknowledges that a candidate financial report was filed on behalf of the Contracting Party on June 15th, 2012. The CEO also acknowledges that the Contracting Party admitted full responsibility for the conduct involved.

The Contracting Party has paid the $250 penalty owed to the Chief Electoral Officer for deposit in the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

The Contracting Party consents to the publication of a notice containing the Contracting Party's name, the act or omission in question, and a summary of the compliance agreement.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that the CEO has advised him of his right to be represented by a lawyer and that he has had the opportunity to obtain legal counsel.

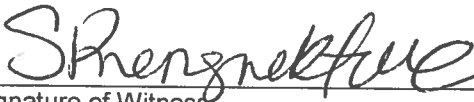

The Contracting Party understands that his acknowledgement of non-compliance does not constitute a guilty plea in the criminal sense and that no record of conviction is created as a result of admitting responsibility for the activity that constitutes the offence.

Signed by the Contracting Party,
in Tuktoyaktuk NWT,
this 18 day of July, 2012.
