COMPLIANCE AGREEMENT

I, Barney Masuzumi, of Tuktoyaktuk, in the Northwest Territories (the Contracting Party) was the Official Agent for Jackie Jacobson during the 2011 election in Nunakput.

The Contracting Party admits that during the 2011 election he accepted a contribution from an individual not resident in the Northwest Territories.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that this act constitutes a failure to comply with section 245(a) of the Elections and Plebiscites Act (the Act).

The Contracting Party acknowledges and accepts responsibility for this act, and is now aware of the offence provision at section 319 of the Act.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that he is aware of the severity and the seriousness of his act.

The Contracting Party undertakes to comply with this provision of the Act in the future.

The Chief Electoral Officer of the Northwest Territories (the CEO) acknowledges that the Contracting Party cooperated with his Office, returned the prohibited contribution to the contributor, retrieved the invalid tax receipt and returned it to his Office, and admitted full responsibility for the conduct involved.

The Contracting Party consents to the publication of a notice containing the Contracting Party's name, the act or omission in question, and a summary of the compliance agreement.

The Contracting Party acknowledges that the CEO has advised him of his right to be represented by a lawyer and that he has had the opportunity to obtain legal counsel.

The Contracting Party understands that his acknowledgement of non-compliance does not constitute a guilty plea in the criminal sense and that no record of conviction is created as a result of admitting responsibility for the activity that constitutes the offence.
