WARNING

This little guide is your ticket to being ready to vote in the 2019 Territorial General Election. Without it you may not be fully prepared to participate which would be sad and we don't want you to be sad. When you're sad, we are sad. The fact that you're reading this is a good sign. You're thorough. Thorough generally means follow through. So as you are busy making sure all your hypothetical ducks are in a row just know we're getting ready for you. See you at the poll! And remember you matter. Your vote matters. You got this.
